So^th. Carolina GAZETTE.

FRIDAY, November 16, 1753.

By the Society for the Reformation of Manners.

IT IS ORDERED,

That the following Paper be read over twice the first Day of its Publication, at every Lady's Tea-Table in Charles-Town.

——— Et tripitur Perſona, manet res.

LUCRET. Lib. 3.

I HAVE always conſidered an accompliſhed Woman as the Maſter-piece of the viſible Creation; for which Reaſon I was ever well pleaſed, in ſeeing Men of Wit and Learning employ their Talents to the Improvement and Advantage of the Fair Sex. Let not the beautiful Part of our Species imagine, that the Author of this Paper lays claim to thoſe excellent Endowments: He does not ſet up for an Inſpector General of Manners, nor does he pretend to any extraordinary Inſight in the Science of Female Oeconomy: But, with all Deference to that ſuperior good Senſe with which the Ladies of this Part of the World are ſo happily furniſhed, I would juſt point out to them, what I take to be a trivial Fault in their Conduct, and what, I can aſſure them with the greateſt Truth, the whole Body of my own Sex would be glad to ſee rectified; I mean, the improper Uſe of Maſks.

In this Climate, Maſks were originally deſigned as a Defence againſt the too powerful Influence of the Wind and Sun. At certain Seaſons, the Rays of the Sun act with ſuch Violence as to tarniſh the Vermillion of the fineſt Countenance; and ſometimes the Wind blows too rough, to touch the Skins of Creatures formed of ſo ſoft and delicate a Mould: But the Act itſelf ſhould continue no longer than the Reaſon of it ſubſiſts: In the moderate Seaſons Maſks grow uſeleſs, and then they ſhould be entirely laid aſide.

I would deſire the tender Fair Ones to conſider, what Pain the other Sex often feels from this notorious Abuſe of the Maſk. Gracefulneſs of Motion, Shape, and Air, naturally raiſes a Curioſity of ſeeing the Face; and when that Curioſity is not gratified, the Anguiſh that follows the Diſappointment is not inconſiderable: Some may cenſure this as a vain and impertinent Curioſity; but they are ſuch as know but little of Human Nature, or their Paſſions are either totally decayed, or they never had any Paſſions at all. One Motive therefore to my writing this Paper, was Compaſſion to the juvenile Part of my own Sex; well remembering how theſe Things affected me in the Morning of my Days. I am now, indeed, pretty far advanced in Years, having paſſed my grand Climacteric; notwithſtanding, I am ſtill bleſſed with a Capacity for enjoying the Pleaſures of female Converſe and Society: My Taſte of Beauty and Elegance remains with me; and I never ſpend an Hour more agreeable than in the Company of well bred Ladies: I am wonderfully pleaſed to behold a ſparkling Eye, and a Set of regular Features: The Sight of a double Row of pretty Ivory Teeth, and of a roſy Glow upon the Countenance, ſtrangely exhilarates my aged Spirits, and impreſſes a new Degree of Velocity on the animal Fluids, that before moved on, through length of Days, languiſhing and ſlow. If this be the Caſe then of an old Man, what pleaſurable Effects muſt flow from the ſame Cauſe, in Men who are in the very Flower and Vigor of their Age, I would leave to every intelligent Reader to determine.

I hope now to ſee the Ladies of Charles-Town walking the Streets, without concealing the Charms of a fine Countenance under a fab'e Maſk. However, ſhould Faſhion, a Fear of being thought ſingular, or any other Motive, induce a Lady to appear with a Maſk, let it rather ſerve to adorn her Hand than to conceal the Beauties of her Face. But, if Cuſtom prevails againſt Reaſon and this gloomy Inſtrument cannot be baniſhed our Streets, but continues to be thought highly decent at all Times, and at all Places; the Author of this Paper may poſſibly ſoon publiſh an Advertiſement, ſetting forth his Deſign of erecting an ACADEMY, for the Inſtruction of young Ladies in the proper Exerciſe of the Maſk. The Maſk-Diſciplina will be comprized under the following Heads, viz.

Handle your Maſks,	Unſettle your Maſks,
Make ready your Maſks,	Put off your Maſks:
Fix your Maſks.	Recover your Maſks.

As this Scheme is of the laſt Importance to compleat a polite and refined Education, it is hoped, that Parents who have the true Intereſt of their Children at Heart, will be generous in their Subſcriptions for promoting ſo uſeful a Work.

Before I cloſe this Speculation, I would give my pretty Female Readers this one Precaution; that, tho' I have here ſeemed to draw a Panegyric on external Beauties, yet I would have them reflect, that the Honour paid them by Men of Underſtanding is not upon Account of theſe ſhadowy Perfections, which, as the moſt elegant of tragic Poets obſerves, ſoon grow familiar, and pall upon the Senſe, but of ſomething infinitely more valuable and laſting; and which is neither influenced by the Viciſſitude of Seaſons, nor is it ſubject to the Power of Fortune: I mean their VIRTUE, GOOD SENSE, MODESTY, and DISCRETION.

CHARLES-TOWN, November 12.

Monday laſt being the Anniverſary of our happy Deliverance from a moſt horrid Popiſh Plot, and of the glorious Revolution by the landing of King WILLIAM in England; that Day was obſerved here as uſual.

The ſame Day put into this Port, a Schooner bound from Wiyaah for Boſton, one Dring Maſter, that had been out three Weeks and met with very bad Weather.

On Tueſday put in alſo, the Ship Recovery, Amos Jones Maſter, from Philadelphia, bound for Cape Fear. Captain Jones, in his Paſſage, ſpoke with a Veſſel, that gave an Account of that Schooner's being returned to Boſton, from her Voyage, which had been fitted out by ſome Gentlemen in Philadelphia, to go in Search of the North-Weſt Paſſage lately ſo often ſought: But we don't hear they have found that Paſſage.

The ſame Evening arrived a Ship from Nova-Scotia; by which we have an Account of the manifeſt Decline of that new Colony, notwithſtanding the languine Publications concerning it. Moſt of the Settlers from the other Colonies (after ſpending much Money) were ſelling the Houſes they had built, and quitting it; every Thing was exceſſive dear; Trade very dull; and the Natives (who are continually ſpirited up to Treachery and Miſchief, by the French) every Day taking of our fiſhing Veſſels off Canſo, and killing and ſcalping their Priſoners.——Governor Hopſon was to ſail for England, on board the Torrington Man of War, 4 Days after this Ship left Halifax; upon whoſe Departure, the Government devolves on Col. Lawrence.

Saturday laſt, being the Anniverſary of His Majeſty's Birth-Day, the ſame was obſerved with all poſſible Demonſtrations of Joy. In the Morning His Majeſty's Ships, and all the Veſſels in the Harbor, were decorated with Colours: The Charles-Town Regiment of Foot, and Troop of Horſe, were, in the Governor's Abſence, reviewed by the Honorable William Bull, Brigadier-General; the Members of His Majeſty's Council, &c. being in the Field: At Noon, the Members of Council and Aſſembly, and the public Officers, walked from the Council Chamber to Granville's Baſtion, where His Majeſty's Health was drank under the Diſcharge of Cannon from that Baſtion, Johnſon's Fort, and the Men of War. In the Evening, an Entertainment and Ball was given, by the Council, to the moſt numerous, brilliant, and polite Aſſembly ever ſeen here on any public Occaſion; and the Evening concluded with Illuminations, Bonfires, &c.

We hear, that Mr. Egerton Leigh (Son of the Honorable Chief Juſtice lately arrived here) was, a few Days ago, ſworn in, and admitted, an Attorney of His Majeſty's Courts in this Province.

In the 3d Line of the Extract of a Letter from New-Providence, publiſhed in our laſt, for Profiſmus, pleaſe read Reſcue.

PARIS, July 26.

SOME of the members of parliament that are at Pontoiſe, go now and then to the iſle Adam, to confer with the prince of Conti, and there is reaſon to hope that their conferences may bring about an accommodation. Every body is deſirous to ſee matters accommodated, and would be ſorry if the king ſhould be obliged to ſend the great chamber any farther than Pontoiſe. Letters from Breſt advife, that the frigate called the Comet, of 32 guns, being out there, is to be ſent to make aſtronomical obſervations upon the coaſts of Spain and Portugal, in order to find out the longitude of certain places, which are ill ſet down in the geographical charts.

Paris, July 27. The diſputes of religion have been ſuch for ſo many, and ſo affords that the king intends to form a chamber of the body, which ſhall, by commiſſion, to judge judge of civil matters. We are impatient to know what will paſs at court on this occaſion.

Paris A-la main, Auguſt 3. They write from Rouen, that the parliament of that city had fined the Biſhop of Evreux 6000 livres, and obliged him to pay them immediately, for refuſing to adminiſter the ſacraments.

The king's council having deſired to be admitted into the laſt aſſembly of the great chamber held at Pontoiſe, declared upon their arrival, that they came with a view to be deputed to the king to deſire the recall of their brethren; but they received for anſwer, that the great chamber expected his majeſty's orders in relation to this affair, 'till the receipt of which they ſhould abide by their reſolution of the 5th of May.

A report prevails that there will be a general meeting of all the parliaments, the 18th inſtant at Paris.

Paris, Auguſt 11. The commiſſioners at the Chatelet and the maſter of requeſt, having with great decency, but at the ſame time with great firmneſs, refuſed to accept the gracious offers made them by the king at the expence of the parliament of Paris, the enemies of that auguſt body are at their wits end. It is ſaid the Prince of Conti; Monſieur de Chauvelain, formerly keeper of the ſeals; and the Biſhop of Soiſſons, always in favour when there is any good to be done, are to be charged with framing a plan of reconciliation.

London, Auguſt 14. The parliament of Rouen having taken as quick ſteps as the parliament of Paris, an exempt (who is a military officer) was ſent thither lately with lettres de cacnet; but it does not appear that they have been much frighted, either by the man or with his meſſage. In the mean time, it is very apparent, that the tyrannical government of the clergy is very prejudicial to religion, three young mouſquetaires having been lately guilty of ſuch acts of prophaneneſs in a church, that they have been baniſhed by the new method; that is, by letters de cacher, inſtead of a legal ſentence, to the plantations in America.

Orders have been iſſued for filling up the compliment of the ſeveral regiments on the Britiſh and Iriſh eſtabliſhments of foot, and for diſcharging all ſuch as have been worn out in the ſervice.

Boſton, Oct. 1. Capt Warner, arrived from London, has brought 11 cannon, 24 pounders, and two mortars, with all ſorts of implements and ſtores belonging to them, lately granted by his majeſty to this province, in lieu of thoſe which were taken out of Caſtle William, for the ſervice of the expedition againſt Cape-Breton.

Newbern, in North Carolina, Oct 13. By the Elizabeth, Capt. Whitſon, from London, we hear, that Governor Dobbs intends over to his Government this Fall, via Virginia; alſo, That —— Palmer, Eſq; is appointed Collector of Bath, and Surveyor General of this Province, in the Room of George Gould, Eſq; deceaſed: And that a Secretary was expected to be appointed, and to come over with his Excellency.

Since our laſt, arrived here a Brigt. from Britain, in Ireland, ſent hither by his Excellency Governor Dobbs, with a great Number of Iriſh Paſſengers, who are come to ſettle in this Province: By the ſame Veſſel his Excellency has ſent Part of his Family, and Houſhold Furniture, which are all ſafe landed and ſtored in this Town.

Williamſburgh, in Virginia, Oct. 18. The General Aſſembly of this Province, are called, by Proclamation, to meet the firſt of next Month
